

DLM AGM, Bern, 21-22 May 2019

Call for Director

In order to regularly provide opportunities for all the DLM Forum members to serve on the Executive Committee (EC, the Board of Directors) of the DLM Forum, and also benefit from a continuous inflow of fresh ideas, the members of the DLM Forum EC (the Directors) are elected for a period of three years. Due to Ms Susana Rodriguez' retirement in October 2019 we have one position open to be filled at the AGM in Bern, as Permanent directors must be elected by the members at an Annual General Meeting.

The retirement schedule for the current directors is as follows:

	Director since	To retire at AGM in
David Anderson	2014	2020
Elena Cortes Ruiz	2014	2020
Jan Dalsten Sørensen	2015	2021
Zoltán Szatucsek	2015	2021
Krystyna W. Ohnesorge	2017	2020
Anja Paulič	2017	2020
Wim Westland	2017	2020
John Sheridan	2017	2020

DLM FORUM MTÜ is a non-profit organisation registered at the Estonian commercial registry, whose directors are responsible to the DLM Forum MTÜ's members for ensuring that the organisation fulfils the objects defined in its Articles of Association. The Board of Directors is advised by, and has a specific duty to take account of the recommendations of the DLM Forum MTÜ's membership.

A member of the EC is a director of the DLM Forum MTÜ under law and has, along with the other directors, a legal responsibility for the running of the forum as a non-profit organisation. Before you apply, you should first seek the permission of your member organisation to act in this capacity. You will also be required to sign the DLM Forum Code of Ethics.

Executive Committee members should expect to be actively involved in the business of the DLM Forum and it is necessary that they make a substantial contribution. They must be available to regular teleconferences at least a monthly basis, be granted some free time by their employers to work on DLM Forum projects between meetings, and must be prepared to regularly communicate with other Executive Committee members by teleconference and email.

The Executive Committee values diversity in its membership and seeks to maintain a balance in representation from all parts of Europe and from different industries across both the government and private sectors. The Executive Committee conducts its meetings and communications in the English language.

The DLM Forum is currently in a period of growth which will produce many new and challenging projects over the next few years.

Candidates should apply by submitting the application form below including personal details, a photo, a short biography and a vision of his/her contribution as a director of EC to secretariat@dmlforum.eu by May 6, 2019.

The secretariat will compile the applications into a single document that will be distributed electronically to all members prior to the Bern meeting.

Applications should be written in English, but a second version may be provided in applicant's mother tongue, if so wished. In that case both versions will be distributed to the members.

Attached is the DLM Code of Ethics approved by the Executive Committee in March 2019.
