

Aleksandra Mrdavšič is a senior archivist at the Archives of the Republic of Slovenia (ARS). Her field of expertise is appraisal and acquisition of archives from the field of economy from both public and private sector, providing expert help concerning archives and management of digital records, also holding courses on these topics. She is involved in developing the processes and guidelines for e-archiving, also participating in the preparation of the national requirements for information governance. She is the representative of the ARS in the DLM Forum.

Aleksandra Mrdavšič