

Zoltán Szatucsek, senior archivist, Head of the Department of Electronic Records. Holds a Master in History with his professional fields currently being records, archival appraisal and acquisition. Member of several professional working groups and committees both national and institutional level. Leader of the NAH electronic archives project, and representative of the NAH in the DLM Forum. Teaches regular records management and archival assistant courses of the NAH. He is the Chair of DLM Forum Foundation since June 2014.

Zoltán Szatucsek